

Activity Box Phrasal Verbs with LOOK

You have looked over most of the phrasal verbs with look, so now it's time to look into the subject in a little more depth, look at a few exercises, and look for the correct answer.

1. Match the phrasal verb to its synonym.

- | | |
|--|---|
| a. To look into something | 1. To search in a list or book |
| b. To look back on something | 2. To concentrate visually on something |
| c. To look at something | 3. To search for something |
| d. To look forward to something | 4. To admire someone |
| e. To look down on someone | 5. To take care of or deal with someone |
| f. To look over something | 6. To be vigilant on someone's behalf |
| g. To look something up | 7. To be excited about something in the future |
| h. To look for something | 8. To consider oneself superior |
| i. To look up to someone | 9. To investigate or research |
| j. To look after someone | 10. To reminisce or think back |
| k. To look out for someone | 11. To revise or check something |

2. Fill in the gaps with the most appropriate phrasal verb with look.

- My parents went away for the weekend and left me to _____ my little brother.
- I only ever remember the good things when I _____ my childhood.
- When I try to read a book in a foreign language I get bored of having to _____ words.
- I've always been interested in film, and the director I _____ most is Hitchcock.
- I've been _____ a job for a few months now but haven't had any luck.
- We're off on holiday tomorrow! I've been _____ it for ages!
- He's so arrogant! I hate it how it _____ us.

3. Rewrite the sentences using an appropriate phrasal verb with LOOK.

- I've always admired surgeons because of their ability to remain calm under such pressure.
- I had been seeking a job for about three months before I was offered this placement.
- I'm currently researching the effect of cannabis on levels of motivation in teenagers.
- Young David is out in the garden alone, so I'd better go outside and keep an eye on him.
- My best friend is getting married next week and I'm the best man. I'm really excited about the wedding.
- I was just thinking back to our holiday in Madrid. What a great time we had!